I. Introduction

1. Preface

The 17th Asian Games will be held in Incheon, Korea starting from September 19th to October 4th 2014.

The Asian Games is an exclusive property of the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) where the members of OCA come together to enhance the ability of Asian athletes and promote mutual understanding through fair competition. It is the multi-sport festivity within the Asian region held every 4 years.

This publication, both in English and Korean languages in the form of hard and soft copies, provides the general information about the Olympic Council of Asia, the Member countries, Incheon Asian Games Organizing Committee and overview of the 17th Asian Games Incheon 2014 as well as introduction of Korea, the Host Country and Incheon, the Host City. This publication also contains the technical information for Archery Sport in the 17th Asian Games Incheon 2014, which is the most important.

It is our honor to provide this Technical Handbook before the start of the 17th Asian Games Incheon 2014. This handbook will serve an important role to all the participating officials and athletes.

Thank you very much.

II. General Information

1. The 17th Asian Games Incheon 2014 in Brief

1.1 Games Overview

Duration	September 19 ~ October 4, 2014 (16 days)
Location	In and around Incheon Metropolitan City
Games Venue	48 venues in total (35 in Incheon, 13 in Co-Host Cities)
Sports Program	36 sports / 437 events
Patron	Olympic Council of Asia (OCA)
Host	The 2014 Incheon Asian Games Organizing Committee (IAGOC)

1.2 Objectives

- Bring forth mutual communication, reconciliation and peace in Asia
- Asian Games that share joy and glory
- Realize practical and economically efficient games

1.3 Slogan

평화의 숨결, 아시아의 미래
Diversity Shines Here

Letting the brilliant and diverse histories, cultures, traditions and religions of Asian countries shine together, striving for the peace of humankind through friendship and harmony, and building a shining future for Asia by uniting.

1.4 Emblem

- Embodied 'A (initial of Asia)' into a human form to dynamically illustrate Asians hand-in-hand and soaring with wings.
- The image of moving towards the bright sun (symbol of OCA and Asian Games) symbolizing constant movement towards a bright future.
- Implies a message of hope for Asians to build friendship and harmony through the 2014 Incheon Asian Games, and for people across the globe to participate in the festival.

1.5 Mascots

Personification of three harbor seal brothers and sister, very rare species, living in the Baekryong Isles, located on the western Korean peninsula. They call themselves, Vichuon (Light), Baram (Wind), and Chumuro (Dance). These seals roam freely between two Koreas beyond the ideology and conflicts, therefore carry the desire for unity, which Asia has longed for.

2. Accreditation and Validation

Asian Games Identification and Accreditation Cards (AGIAC) will act as an entry visa to Korea and ensure special access to the Games venues including the HQ Hotel and competition venues. IAGOC will distribute Accreditation Guide and Accreditation Application Forms to Accreditation Responsible Organizations by December 2013. The online Accreditation System will open on December 1, 2013. The deadline for the submission of the application forms is April 30, 2014. IAGOC will distribute the Pre-valid AGIAC to the confirmed participants from August 2014. Upon the arrival in Incheon, pre-valid AGIAC holders should visit one of the accreditation centers with their effective identification documents and validate their pre-valid AGIAC. Once validated, AGIAC becomes an official Games document.

3. Immigration and Visa

From August 20 to October 19, 2014, AD Card holders will be permitted multiple entries into Korea upon presentation of their valid passports or travel documents. AD Card holders will not need to apply for a Korean Entry Visa or Residence Permit in order to enter the country (Provided that the press are allowed to enter Korea without visa for 90 days, from July 22, 2014 to October 19, 2014, which can afford every facility for the press).

Any AD Card holder wishing to enter Korea before or after the valid period of the AD Card, or to remain in Korea after its expiry date, will need to make their own arrangements regarding visas according to Korean immigration law.

AD Card holders should ensure that the information on their valid passport when entering Korea is exactly the same with the information on the certified document used for application for AD Card, and that their passports remain valid at least until October 19, 2014.

4. Transportation

4.1 Transport Services for Arrival and Departure

Shuttle Bus Services will be provided for arriving and departing athletes and team officials, depending on arrival and departure information and flight schedule. Before departure, Shuttle Bus Services require advance reservation.

4.2 Dedicated Vehicle Services

Dedicated Vehicle Services will be provided between Athletes' Village and the designated areas, depending on team events and on the size of NOC participants. Dedicated Vehicle Services require advance reservation and approval.

4.3 Transport Services for Competitions (for non-team events)

Shuttle Bus Services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events will be provided between Athletes' Village and the competition venues as per the competition schedule.

4.4 Transport Services for Training (for non-team events)

Shuttle Bus Services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events will be provided between Athletes' Village and the training venues as per the training schedule.

4.5 Transport Services for Spectating

The AV-to-venues shuttle will be provided to athletes and team officials wishing to watch other sport competition events. The service is also available to all athletes and team officials who are involved in the same events: priority, however, will be given to athletes and team officials participating in their own events.

※ Tickets are required for spectating.

4.6 Transport Services for Luggage

The luggage belonging to athletes and team officials should, in principal, be loaded onto the bus they take. If not possible due to insufficient storage space, another vehicle will be provided to the destinations.

5. Accommodation

During the Games time, over 13,000 athletes and team officials including extra officials will be accommodated at Incheon Guwol Asiad Athletes' Village located in Incheon. Pre-opening of Athletes' Village will be on September 5, 2014. The Athletes' Village will officially be open on September 12, 2014 and will close on October 7, 2014. A variety of amenities and recreational facilities will be offered for the Games family at Athletes' Village. For the sake of the safety, separate signage is required for entering the area.

6. Media

6.1 Mixed Zone

The Mixed zone is an area in which athletes may be interviewed as soon as they leave the field of play. The Mixed Zone is designed to permit the broadcasters and press to interview athletes in a designated area near the field of play. In accordance with OCA's rules, all athletes must pass through the Mixed Zone. Mixed Zone interviews are recommended within limited time each to let the broadcasters and press to have an equal opportunity to speak to the athletes.

The AFs and IAGOC Sports Operations Team will provide all necessary assistance to ensure the convenience of Mixed Zone.

6.2 Press Conference

After each event, the designated medalists will attend a press conference at the venue as well as coaches if circumstances dictate. They should accompany to the press conference room. Medalists press conference will be held right after the medal presentation ceremonies at the venue. Sports operational staff will bring athletes to the press conference room.

Translation services will be provided with English and Korean during the press conferences at the venues. If medalists do not speak English or Korean, NOCs are requested to assign an interpreter with the medalists attending the press conference.

7. Medical Service

Medical stations for athletes will be installed at all competition venues and training facilities.

On-site medical treatment and emergency transfer service will be provided during operating period. Polyclinic in the Athletes' Village will provide treatment and consultation by professional medical staff across the departments of internal medicine, general surgery (including orthopedics), ophthalmology, stomatology, medical imaging, physical therapy, pharmacy, etc.

It will also have an emergency room open 24 hours a day, with stand-by ambulances. Any patient who needs further diagnosis and treatment will be transferred to designated hospitals of the Games.

Where accredited persons including OCA Family VIP guests, NOC guests suffer from acute diseases, acute exacerbations of chronic diseases or acute injuries, they can receive treatment in Polyclinic or designated hospitals for free of charge. Services may include emergency treatment, in-patient service, special consultation and ambulance transfer, if required. However, free medical services will not include selective or unnecessary treatment.

8.2 Incheon in brief

Introduction to Incheon

The name "Incheon" was first used in the late Goryeo Era. Before then, Incheon was called "Michuhol" in the Baekje Era. Incheon was the first city to experience civilization through trade, religion and education. The constant foreign invasions eventually made the people of Incheon realize the importance of modern education and search for international experiences. After the construction of Gyeongbu Expressway, Incheon's geographic importance in exchanges with China was realized and Incheon International Airport, one of the world's most advanced airports, was built on Yeongjong Island, making Incheon the hub of Northeast Asia. In addition, Incheon Free Economic Zone was designated in 2003 and now is an international city.

Transportation

The so-called Penta-port City, Incheon has a superb traffic infrastructure with unparalleled accessibility. It features the world's finest Incheon International Airport, Incheon Port, the 1st and 2nd Gyeongin Highways, the West Coast Highway, the Yeongdong Highway, and the Seoul Outer Beltway. Incheon is also geographically close to Seoul, and the two cities are well connected.

Area and Location

The current administrative unit covers a total area of 1,032.41km², or 1% of South Korea between 36° 55' - 37° 58' N and 124° 36' - 126° 47' E.

Population

As of October 2013, the city has a total population of 2,923,456 with more than 1,115,516 households. Incheon is rapidly developing into the third largest city in Korea, following Seoul and Busan, the first and the second largest, respectively.

Touristic Resources

Incheon enjoys rich touristic resources and the famous Eight Top Scenic Spots of Incheon like Wolmi Culture Street, Chinatown, Memorial Hall for Incheon Landing Operation, Songdo Central Park, Incheon Grand Park, Sorae Port, Rodeo Street, Bupyeong Underground Shopping Center, etc. More detailed information on Incheon tour will be found at <http://itour.visitincheon.org> and provided with English, Chinese, Japanese and Korean.

9. Weather Condition

Korea is geographically situated in the Far East of Northern Hemisphere. It has a moderate climate and is characterized with distinctive four seasons such as spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Incheon is located in the mid-west of the Korean peninsula with an average sea level low, abutting the west sea. Incheon has a relatively dry climate and is also greatly affected by seasonal winds.

The average annual temperature is approximately 12.1°C, with an average rainfall of 1,234.4mm and relative humidity of 69% respectively.

It is said to have a pleasant climate condition, a small rainfall and long sunshine hours while approaching the end of September. It is an optimum weather for athletes to play and perform in its best weather condition.

The following is the climate distribution record of Incheon from September 16 to October 15 (1 month) over the past 10 years. (2003-2012)

Mean Temperature	18.8°C
